DIGEST

SB 79 Original 2021 Regular Session Ward

Proposed law provides that the governing authority of Pointe Coupee Parish may provide, by ordinance, for the governance of fire protection districts created by the parish. Provides that any such ordinance may provide for the creation of one or more supervising boards to govern such districts and that the ordinance that creates a supervising board will provide for the appointment and compensation of board members.

Effective upon signature of the governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.
