The original instrument and the following digest, which constitutes no part of the legislative instrument, were prepared by Cheryl Cooper.

DIGEST

SB 87 Engrossed | 2018 Regular Session | John Smith

Present law permits the commissioner to maintain public records using certain types of forms and methods.

Present law permits the commissioner to permit or require any rate, form or any other filings, along with any accompanying supplementary or supporting information to be filed electronically.

Proposed law retains present law and further permits the commissioner to permit or require the electronic filing of an application for any license or registration.

Effective August 1, 2018.

(Amends R.S. 22:42(F))