DIGEST

SB 145 Original | 2022 Regular Session | Talbot

Present law authorizes the establishment of charter schools, provides for different types of charter schools, and provides for the chartering process, including delineating which types of charter proposals are submitted to the local school board and which are submitted to the State Board of Elementary and Secondary Education (BESE).

Present law authorizes charter schools to have corporate partners.

Proposed law provides that a proposal for a charter school with a corporate partner may be made first to BESE as a Type 2 charter school.

Proposed law otherwise retains present law.

Effective upon signature of the governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.
