DIGEST

SB 244 Original | 2024 Regular Session | Talbot

Present law provides that in a civil case, evidence of furnishing or offering or promising to pay expenses or losses occasioned by an injury to person or damage to property is not admissible to prove liability for the injury or damage nor is it admissible to mitigate, reduce, or avoid liability therefor.

Proposed law provides that evidence of payment of expenses or losses incurred from personal injury or property damage is not admissible to prove liability for the injury or damage and shall be admissible to mitigate, reduce, or avoid liability for such expenses or losses.

Effective August 1, 2024.
