DIGEST

SB 196 Original 2020 Regular Session Fields

Present constitution and law provide that appropriations for institutions of postsecondary education shall be made to their management boards and administered by the boards as provided by law.

Proposed law retains present law and additionally provides that appropriation made to the Board of Regents on behalf of institutions of postsecondary education shall not be deemed as having been made to their management boards.

Effective upon signature of the governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.
