DIGEST

SB 274 Original | 2015 Regular Session | Morrish

Proposed law prohibits the governing authority of an ambulance service district in Cameron Parish, from compensating its board of commissioners or paying them a per diem for attending a regular or special meeting of the district. However, proposed law directs the governing authority to reimburse commissioners for actual expenses related to attending meetings and any other business on behalf of the district.

Effective August 1, 2015.
