DIGEST

SB 396 Original | 2022 Regular Session | Morris

Present law provides that upon conviction, a surety's obligation is relieved.

Proposed law provides that a surety's obligation is relieved except for obligations owed and rights accrued to the state to obtain a judgment of bond forfeiture under present law when the conviction occurs after the lapse of 180 days from the date of issuance of the warrant of arrest.

Effective August 1, 2022.
