DIGEST

SB 395 Original 2016 Regular Session Ward

Present law provides for the Louisiana State Law Institute and its powers, duties, and functions. Includes the membership, terms, duties and functions of the Law Institute Council.

Proposed law retains present law and adds that all meetings of the Council shall be held in Baton Rouge. The meetings shall take place at the state capitol building or, if space there is not available, at another location open to the public and available without charge.

Effective upon signature of the governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.
