DIGEST

SB 177 Original | 2016 Regular Session | Donahue

Proposed law provides for the reporting on special funds. Provides that each year the state treasurer shall submit at the August meeting of the Joint Legislative Committee on the Budget (JLCB) the status of fund transfers authorized to eliminate budget deficits, specifically transfers which reduced constitutionally protected funds or dedications which were approved by the JLCB to eliminate budget deficits. The information shall include the date and amount of the transfer, the balance of the fund immediately prior to the transfer and the balance of the fund at year end.

Proposed law further provides that the JLCB may make such studies and hold such hearings as it shall deem appropriate and necessary to review special funds and dedications of money in the state treasury including the means of financing, specifically those funds whose primary means of financing is the state general fund, the purpose and use of the monies, and the status and balances of the special funds and dedicated monies.

Effective upon signature of the governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.
