DIGEST

SB 217 Original | 2016 Regular Session | Bishop

Proposed law requires all working papers, recorded information, documents, and copies thereof produced, obtained or disclosed to the commissioner pursuant to receivership proceedings to be given confidential treatment and not to be subject to subpoena or disclosed pursuant to the Public Records Law.

Proposed law requires all working papers, recorded information, documents and copies thereof disclosed by the commissioner, or any other person, to the receiver pursuant to receivership proceedings to be given confidential treatment and not to be subject to subpoena or disclosed pursuant to Public Records Law.

Proposed law prohibits any limitation to the commissioner's authority to use any working papers, recorded information, documents, and copies thereof discovered or developed during the course of receivership proceedings.

Effective August 1, 2016.
