HB 73 Reengrossed

2017 Regular Session

Mack

Abstract: Limits the funds available to the marshal of the city of Hammond from fees collected for salary purposes and requires the remainder of the funds to be used for the operational expenses of the office of the marshal of the city of Hammond.

Present law provides a listing of certain fees that the marshal of the city of Hammond shall be entitled to in civil matters.

Present law provides that the marshal of the city of Hammond shall be entitled to certain fees for each service of certain civil pleadings.

Present law (R.S. 13:1883) provides the marshal of the city of Hammond with a minimum salary of $6,000 payable monthly in equal proportions by the governing authority and the parish.

Present law provides that the marshal is entitled to use up to $15,500 annually of the fees of office to defray operational expenses as may be useful and necessary for the proper conduct of the office of the marshal.

Proposed law allows the marshal to use up to $39,586 annually of the fees collected to supplement his salary and benefits, and requires that the total compensation and benefits paid to the marshal of the city of Hammond shall not exceed $111,585 annually. Proposed law requires that the remainder of the fees and commissions collected shall be used to defray operational expenses as may be useful and necessary for the proper conduct of the office of the marshal.
