

1 (A) It has been forty-four years since the Constitution of Louisiana became effective
2 at midnight on December 31, 1974, and during these years the document which constitutes 3 the state's basic law has been amended in excess of one hundred seventy-five times.

4 (B) The need to address a number of key policy areas that require constitutional 5 change has become apparent, including such matters as the state's tax structure and 6 budgetary practices that hamper the state's economic growth and competitiveness as well as 7 the quality of life of Louisiana residents; the dedication of state revenues and the resulting 8 inability of the legislature to allocate resources where needed, particularly for the needs of 9 health care and higher education; the fiscal restraints on local governments that dramatically 10 limit their authority to meet fiscal and budgetary demands; and other matters.

11 (C) The constitution today contains many provisions that restrict the legislature in 12 effectively addressing state and constituent needs, and the document also includes extensive 13 provisions that are so detailed as to be statutory rather than constitutional in nature and, as 14 a result, require further constitutional amendment when any change is needed.

15 (D) A serious analysis and revision of the state constitution is needed if the state is 16 to conduct a genuine examination of the state's critical needs, to undertake an in-depth 17 consideration of reform proposals, and to craft provisions that allow for flexibility and 18 innovation in legislative solutions to problems of the present and the future.

19 Section 2. Evaluation and Drafting Committee. (A) The Evaluation and Drafting 20 Committee is hereby created. The purpose of the committee shall be to evaluate and 21 determine if a constitutional convention is needed to address the needs of the state and its 22 people and, if it determines that a convention is needed, to develop and propose a plan for 23 the conduct of an effective constitutional convention, including, subject to the limitations
24 provided by Section 6 of this Act, a draft of a proposed constitution with alternative 25 proposals for provisions addressing significant policy areas.

26 (B)(1) The Evaluation and Drafting Committee shall be composed of thirteen 27 members as follows:

17 joint concurrence of the dean of the college of law and the dean of the business college.

19 by the council.

23 the membership appointed to the committee. The secretary of state shall issue a commission
24 to each person appointed as provided in this Section.

25 (3) The committee shall hold its organizational meeting not later than Tuesday, 26 September 4, 2018, on the call of the speaker of the House of Representatives and the

24 necessarily restricted to universities, colleges, foundations, charitable corporations, private 25 research agencies, individuals, and organizations.

26 (3) The committee may call upon the members or staffs of any and all departments 27 or agencies of the state for data and assistance, and all such departments and agencies shall

1 the committee may use the facilities and services of other persons and organizations.

2 (I) If the Evaluation and Drafting Committee determines that a constitutional
3 convention is needed, the Evaluation and Drafting Committee shall be dissolved thirty days 4 after submission of a copy of the plan for the conduct of the constitutional convention to the 5 convention, except that if a different termination date is provided in the rules of the 6 convention, the Evaluation and Drafting Committee shall be dissolved on that date.
7 However, if the Evaluation and Drafting Committee determines that a convention is not 8 necessary, the Evaluation and Drafting Committee shall be dissolved upon adjournment sine
9 die of the 2019 Regular Session of the Legislature of Louisiana.

10 Section 3. Call for convention; delegates. (A) A constitutional convention is hereby

12 Section 9. Compensation of delegates. The delegates to the convention shall receive 13 a per diem for each day of actual attendance at meetings of the convention or of committees 14 thereof in the amount provided for members of the legislature for attendance at legislative 15 sessions, but no delegate shall be paid a per diem after June 30, 2020, or the date the final 16 draft is completed, whichever is earlier. No delegate may accept any other compensation
17 from any source for work performed as a delegate to the convention. However, if a delegate 18 is engaged in regular, bona fide employment, should the delegate's employer choose to 19 continue to pay the usual compensation while the delegate is engaged in the work of the 20 convention, such delegate may accept that compensation, notwithstanding any provision of 21 law to the contrary.

22 Section 10. Appropriation; use of funds. (A) Any appropriation for the expenses
23 of the convention shall be used solely to defray the necessary expenses of the constitutional 24 convention for which provision is made in this Act, including the payment of per diem of 25 delegates, salaries, and expenses of necessary employees, supplies, materials, equipment, 26 printing, and reproduction of materials, and all other necessary expenses incurred in 27 connection with the convention and its work.

28 (B) Any funds appropriated for the convention shall be withdrawn from the state 29 treasury in accordance with warrants signed by the chairman of the convention, and all

1 checks for the disbursement of funds shall be signed by the chairman and the vice chairman
2 of the convention or by the chairman or vice chairman and such other person as shall be 3 designated by the convention.

4 (C) The legislature shall make adequate appropriations to the convention for so long 5 as the convention remains in existence and for so long thereafter as is necessary to assure 6 the payment of all expenses incurred in connection with the work of the convention. The 7 convention shall not be deemed to be a budget unit of the state and therefore shall not be 8 subject to the provisions of Chapter 1 of Title 39 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950.
9 The financial books and records of the convention, however, shall be subject to audit by the 10 legislative auditor.

11 Section 11. Submission of proposed constitution; election. (A) Upon completion 12 of its work, and not later than July 11, 2020, and subject to the limitations provided in 13 Section 6 of this Act, the convention shall submit a proposed draft of a new constitution for 14 the state to the governor. At the discretion of the convention, but subject to the limitations
15 provided in Section 6 of this Act, the convention may also propose and submit at the same 16 time such alternative provisions as it deems appropriate. The constitution as drafted by the 17 convention, together with any alternative provisions proposed for submission, shall be 18 submitted to the people for adoption or rejection. Within fifteen days after submission of 19 the proposed draft to the governor, he shall by proclamation call an election to be held at the 20 same time as the presidential election in 2020 for the purpose of submitting the proposed 21 draft and any alternative provisions to the people for adoption or rejection.

22 (B) The election shall be held and the results shall be promulgated in accordance 23 with the Louisiana Election Code. All electors duly qualified to vote in the state at the time 24 of the election shall be entitled to vote without regard to party affiliation in their respective 25 precincts on the proposition for or against adoption of the revision and on the question or 26 questions of adoption of such alternative provisions as may be proposed by the convention.
27 The costs of the election shall be paid as provided in the Louisiana Election Code for 28 elections in which a constitutional amendment appears on the ballot.

29 (C) The convention may submit to the electors of the state the proposal of

1 acceptance or rejection of the constitution and any alternative provisions in such form and 2 manner as it may determine and may direct the proper election officials to take the necessary
3 steps to effectuate such determination of the convention in presenting the proposed 4 constitution and any alternative provisions to the electors. Adoption of the constitution and 5 of any such alternative provisions shall require the favorable vote of a majority of the 6 electors voting on the respective proposition.

7 (D) Upon promulgation of the results of the election by the secretary of state, if the 8 constitution is ratified and adopted by the people in the election for which provision is made 9 in this Section, the governor shall proclaim the constitution, including such alternative 10 provisions as are adopted by the people at the election, to be the Constitution of Louisiana.
11 The constitution, including such alternative provisions as are so adopted, shall become 12 effective at midnight on December 31, 2020, except as otherwise provided in the constitution 13 adopted or in any such alternative provisions adopted.

14 Section 12. If any provision or application of this Act that authorizes the convention 15 to consider only certain subject matters and certain provisions of the constitution and 16 prohibits the convention from considering other subject matters and provisions is held 17 invalid, including without limitation any provision of Section 6 of this Act, then this entire 18 Act shall be invalid and of no effect. However, if any other provision of this Act or the 19 application thereof is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or 20 applications of this Act that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application.

21 Section 13. This Act shall become effective upon signature by the governor or, if not 22 signed by the governor, upon expiration of the time for bills to become law without signature
23 by the governor, as provided in Article III, Section 18 of the Constitution of Louisiana. If 24 vetoed by the governor and subsequently approved by the legislature, this Act shall become 25 effective on the day following such approval.
