14		*	*	*

15 (3)(a) Benefits shall be payable as specified in this Paragraph to any 16 surviving child of a deceased member or retiree if the child has a total physical 17 disability or an intellectual disability. The surviving child of a deceased active 18 contributing member, a deceased disability retiree, or a deceased regular retiree, 19 whether under or over the age of eighteen years, shall be entitled to the same
20 benefits, payable in the same manner as are provided in this Section for minor 21 children, if the child has a total physical disability or an intellectual disability and 22 had such disability at the time of death of the member or retiree, and the child is 23 dependent upon the surviving spouse or other legal guardian for subsistence.
24 Benefits payable under the provisions of this Paragraph may be paid in trust as 25 provided in R.S. 11:2256.2.

26 (b) A medical determination of permanent mental or physical disability of a 27 member's child or children that is approved by the board of trustees pursuant to R.S.
