EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

Proposed law adds the Liberty Theater in Eunice to the current list of facilities receiving funds from the St. Landry Parish Historical Development Fund No. 1. Under the proposed law, the Old City Hall - City Market, the Delta Grand Theatre, and the Liberty Theatre would share 2% of the proceeds generated from the state sales taxation of hotel/motel room rentals under the provisions of R.S. 47:302. Proposed law will not create a direct material effect on governmental expenditures from the fund as a result of this measure, but will add a new entity to receive an allocation from the fund.

Present law provides that the state sales tax collected on hotel/motel room rentals in St. Landry Parish are allocated to the St. Landry Historical Development Fund No. 1. The fund is then further allocated to two different funds. The proceeds from R.S. 47:321 (1%) and 331 (97%) are allocated to the St. Landry Parish Tourism Commission. The proceeds from R.S. 47:302 (2%) are allocated to the Old City Hall - City Market in Opelousas and the Delta Grand Theatre in Opelousas for the improvement and/or preservation of these two buildings, or any other tourism related activity in St. Landry Parish.
