initiated by a professional or occupational board or commission as follows:

(a) If the nature of the complaint is based on negligence or gross negligence, no proceeding may be initiated after two years from discovery by the complainant. However, under no circumstances shall such a proceeding be initiated more than five years from the date of the act or omission.

(b) If the nature of the complaint is based on an intentional act or complainant. However, under no circumstances shall such a proceeding be initiated

more than five years from the date of the act or omission.

(3)(c) If the nature of the complaint is based on fraud, no proceeding may be initiated after two years from discovery by the complainant.

(3)(d) If the nature of the complaint is based on a license or rules violation, no proceeding may be initiated after five years from the date of the act or omission.

(3)(e) In all cases where a complaint is filed with a professional or occupational board or commission, the board or commission shall notify the licensee who is specifically named in the complaint as the subject of the complaint in writing of the complaint within six months after the filing of the complaint or be barred from further action thereon. The board or commission shall hold any required hearing within six months after the notice of the hearing, but this period may be interrupted by the filing of procedural motions or suspended as provided in Paragraph (2) of this Subsection.

(2) The time periods provided in this Subsection are suspended during the pendency of a legal action involving the licensee as a party or witness if the complaint arises from the same facts giving rise to the legal action or arises from the licensee's activities in the legal action. For the purposes of this Subsection, "legal action" includes litigation, arbitration, mediation, administrative proceeding, or other disciplinary proceeding.
