Present law authorizes interest to be added to the amount of local sales and use tax due when a taxpayer fails to pay all or part of the tax due on or before the due date.

Proposed law provides for a maximum rate of interest for local sales and use tax of one percent per month for taxes that become due on or after Jan. 1, 2023.

Present law authorizes penalties for the late filing of local sales and use tax returns and the late payment of local sales and use tax.

Proposed law provides that the penalties for late filing and late payment accrue from the due date of the return until the return is filed and from the due date of the tax until the tax is paid.

Present law authorizes interest to be added to refunds of local sales and use tax when a taxpayer overpays the tax.

Proposed law provides that the interest rate for refunds of overpayments of local sales and use tax for taxes that become due on or after Jan. 1, 2023, will be the same rate charged on tax obligations set forth in proposed law.

Effective August 1, 2022.
