Proposed law provides for the duty of law enforcement to record the fingerprints of all persons arrested for any offense involving the operation of a vehicle while intoxicated, including local ordinances. Proposed law retains present law and expands the list of offenses that involves the operation of a motor vehicle while intoxicated, including local ordinances.

The proposed law requires fingerprinting of everyone arrested for any offense involving operating a vehicle while intoxicated. Since fingerprinting is a routine activity performed by law enforcement agencies, the proposed law is not anticipated to impact governmental expenditures.

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
