implementation; limitations

CODING: Words in struck through type are deletions from existing law; words underscored are additions.
B. The state Department of Education shall develop a comprehensive and evidence-based early literacy initiative for students in kindergarten through third grade. The department shall:

(5) Require, beginning with the 2022-2023 school year, each public school to administer the literacy assessment three times per school year to each student in kindergarten through third grade; the first assessment shall be administered within the first thirty days of each school year, the second assessment shall be administered in December, and the third assessment shall be administered in April.

(6) Provide, within thirty days after the administration of the literacy assessment, a literacy assessment report to each public school governing authority, each public school, and each public school teacher who teaches students in kindergarten through third grade; that indicates the number and percentage of students with literacy skills determined to be above grade level, on grade level, or below grade level. The number of students identified for referral for gifted evaluation or targeted for literacy intervention shall also be reported.

(7)(a) Submit a report, not later than ninety days after the beginning of each school year, to the Senate Committee on Education and the House Committee on Education detailing the results of the each literacy assessment for each public elementary school, each public school system, and the state as a whole. The report shall be submitted twice per school year. The first report shall include the results of the first assessment administered and shall be submitted within the first ninety days of the school year. The second report shall include the results of the second and third assessments and shall be submitted not later than June first.

(b) The Each report shall include:

§24.10. Early literacy instruction and assessment; parental notification; reporting

A. Each public school shall:

(2) Within the first thirty days of each school year, in December, and in April, administer the literacy assessment developed and provided by the state Department of Education pursuant to R.S. 17:24.9 to each student in kindergarten through third grade to determine each student's literacy level.

(3) Provide literacy interventions and supports designed to improve the foundational literacy skills of any student identified as having literacy skills below grade level. The supports may include daily targeted small-group interventions, before and after school literacy intervention provided by a teacher or tutor with specialized literacy training, and at-home literacy programs that include literacy workshops for the parents and legal guardians of students and web-based or parent-guided home literacy activities, and summer learning opportunities, including but not limited to reading camps where students receive reading intervention services and supports.

*          *          *

B.(1) Within fifteen days of identifying that a student in kindergarten through third grade is below grade level, based on the results of the annual literacy assessment, any of the three literacy assessments administered per school year, the school shall notify the student's parent or legal guardian in writing that the student has been identified as being below grade level, and shall provide the student's parent with the following:

*          *          *

F. A student in grades kindergarten through three, within thirty days of being identified as having literacy skills that are below grade level based on the results of the literacy assessment, shall receive an individual reading improvement plan. The plan shall be created by the teacher, principal, other pertinent school personnel, and the parent or legal guardian and shall describe the research-based reading intervention services the student will receive.
F. The State Board of Elementary and Secondary Education shall adopt rules in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act to implement the provisions of this Section.

HB 911 Original 2022 Regular Session Hughes

Abstract: Provides for additional literacy assessments for students in grades K-3, requires individual reading plans for certain students, and requires literacy coaches for teachers.

Relative to literacy assessments for students in grades K-3:

(1) Present law provides for students in grades K-3 to take a literacy assessment within the first 30 days of the school year. Proposed law provides for two additional assessments per school year, one in Dec. and one in April.

(2) Present law requires parental notification when students are identified as having literacy skills that are below grade level based on the assessment results. Proposed law specifies that this notification is required upon such identification based on the results of any of the three assessments administered per school year.

(3) Present law requires the state Dept. of Education (DOE) to submit a report to the legislature on the results of the assessment within the first 90 days of the school year.

CODING: Words in struck through type are deletions from existing law; words underscored are additions.
Present law additionally requires a second report to be submitted by June 1st (the first report covering the results of the first assessment and the second report covering the results of the second and third assessments).

Relative to literacy interventions and supports for students identified as having literacy skills below grade level:

1. Proposed law requires an individual reading improvement plan for each such student created by school officials and parents.

2. Present law requires literacy interventions and supports for these students, which may include small-group interventions, before and after school literacy intervention, and at-home literacy programs. Proposed law adds summer learning opportunities to this list.

Relative to professional development for teachers, present law requires professional development pertaining to early literacy, including a course on foundational literacy skills. Proposed law additionally requires literacy coaches for on-site teacher training.

(Amends R.S. 17:24.9(B)(5), (6), and (7)(a) and (b)(intro. para.), 24.10(A)(2) and (3), (B)(1)(intro. para.), and (F), and 24.12(C) and (D); Adds R.S. 17:24.10(G) and 24.12(E))
