Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

Section 1. R.S. 1:18 is hereby enacted to read as follows:

§18. Construction of laws relative to abortion

However, a subsequently enacted law may expressly repeal other laws.

Coding: Words which are struck through are deletions from existing law; words in boldface type and underscored are additions.
B. All laws or parts of laws prohibiting or regulating abortion may not be construed to restrict a local governing authority from prohibiting or regulating abortion to the extent that the local ordinance is at least as stringent as the laws of this state unless the law explicitly provides that local governing authorities are prohibited from prohibiting or regulating abortion in the manner described by the law.

C. Unless otherwise specifically provided therein, the provisions of each act of the legislature prohibiting or regulating abortion are severable, whether or not a provision to that effect is included in the act. If any provision or item of an act prohibiting or regulating abortion, or the application thereof, is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions, items, or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision, item, or application.

D. This Section shall apply to acts of the legislature affecting general laws, and local and special laws, and statutes of the state, including the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, the Civil Code, the Code of Civil Procedure, of the following:

(a) Save the life or preserve the health of an unborn child.

(b) Remove a dead unborn child or induce delivery of the uterine contents in case of a positive diagnosis, certified in writing in the female's medical record along with the results of an obstetric ultrasound test, that the pregnancy has ended or is in the unavoidable and untreatable process of ending due to spontaneous miscarriage, also known in medical terminology as spontaneous abortion, missed abortion, inevitable abortion, incomplete abortion, or septic abortion.
