HOUSE BILL NO. 370
BY REPRESENTATIVE MAGEE

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES: Provides relative to the self-distribution of certain alcoholic beverages by certain brewers

AN ACT

To amend and reenact R.S. 26:241(15) and to enact R.S. 26:241(27) and (28), 242, and 271(A)(7), relative to the Alcoholic Beverage Control Law; to provide for definitions; to provide relative to the distribution of certain alcoholic beverages; to provide for self-distribution; to provide for limitations; to provide relative to permit fees; and to provide for related matters.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

Section 1. R.S. 26:241(15) is hereby amended and reenacted and R.S. 26:241(27) and (28), 242, and 271(A)(7) are hereby enacted to read as follows:

§241. Definitions

The following terms have the respective meanings ascribed to them except in those instances where the context indicates a different meaning:

* * * *

(15) "Manufacturer or brewer" means any person who, directly or indirectly, personally or through any agency, person, or establishment, engages in the making, blending, rectifying, brewing, or other processing of alcoholic beverages in Louisiana or outside the state for shipments to licensed wholesale dealers within the state subject to the provisions of R.S. 26:364. A manufacturer or brewer who operates a brewing facility entirely located in the state of Louisiana shall brew at least fifty percent of its monthly production at the permitted facility. Such facility shall be equipped with adequate brewing systems sufficient to meet its monthly production, and the facility shall maintain a valid health permit issued by the...
Louisiana Department of Health. A manufacturer or brewer who operates a brewing facility entirely located in the state of Louisiana may sell or serve only those products brewed at that facility to the public only at that facility for consumption on or off the premises but not for resale. The total amount of such sales to the public for any given month shall not exceed ten percent of the total amount of product brewed at that facility monthly or two hundred fifty barrels, whichever is greater. Any manufacturer or brewer who sells its products to the public pursuant to this Paragraph shall remit all state and parish or municipal sales and excise taxes to the proper tax collecting authority for all products sold to the public. A manufacturer or brewer who sells or serves its products to the public pursuant to this Paragraph, shall comply with all local zoning laws and regulations.

(27) "Brewing facility" means an establishment wherein beer and other malt beverages are brewed for the primary purpose of selling the brewed product for resale and a limited quantity may be sold at retail to consumers for consumption on or off the licensed premises.

(28) "Self-distribution" means distribution by a brewer of beer or other malt beverages brewed at a brewing facility entirely located in the state of Louisiana to a retailer holding a Class A permit issued pursuant to R.S. 26:71.1 or 271.2, a Class B permit issued pursuant to R.S. 26:71 or 271, or a Class C permit issued pursuant to R.S. 26:71.2 or 271.3.

§242. Self-distribution

A. A brewer that produces less than ninety-three thousand gallons of beer annually at a brewing facility located entirely in the state of Louisiana may self-distribute up to forty-six thousand five hundred gallons of the two hundred fifty barrels allowed pursuant to R.S. 26:241 to a retailer holding a Class A permit issued pursuant to R.S. 26:71.1 or 271.2, a Class B permit issued pursuant to R.S. 26:71 or 271, or a Class C permit issued pursuant to R.S. 26:71.2 or 271.3 provided that all of the following conditions are met:
(1) The brewer obtains a permit to self-distribute only those products brewed on site from the commissioner according to established rules and regulations.

(2) The brewer does not have an existing distribution agreement with a permitted wholesale dealer.

(3) The brewer owns or leases warehouse space that shall be maintained separate from the brewing facility.

(4) The brewer owns or leases delivery equipment dedicated for the primary use of distribution and delivery of only those products brewed at the brewing facility.

(5) The brewer shall self-distribute products at a standard price to all retailers.

(6) The brewer shall provide a monthly report of all sales from the brewing facility and all sales from self-distribution to the office of alcohol and tobacco control.

B. Any brewer that engages in self-distribution shall be subject to the rules and regulations contained in LAC Title 55, Part VII.

§271. Permits required; fees

A. Before engaging in the business of dealing in malt beverages or beverages of low alcoholic content, all manufacturers, wholesale and retail dealers, and microbrewers shall obtain from the commissioner, according to established rules and regulations, a permit to conduct each separate manufacturing, wholesale, retail, or microbrewery business and shall pay for each permit a fee not to exceed the amounts provided for in the following schedule and in accordance with regulations promulgated pursuant to the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act for each year the permit is valid:

*     *     *

(7) Brewers engaged in self-distribution— one thousand five hundred dollars.

HB 370 Reengrossed 2022 Regular Session Magee

Abstract: Provides for the self-distribution of beer and malt beverages under certain conditions.

Present law (R.S. 26:241) provides for definitions for alcohol beverage control and taxation.

Proposed law amends the definition of "manufacturer or brewer" and provides definitions for "brewing facility" and "self-distribution".

Present law requires that sales to the public by manufacturers or brewers cannot exceed the greater of 10% of the total amount of product brewed at that facility monthly or 250 barrels and requires all state and parish or municipal sales and excise taxes be remitted to the proper tax collecting authority for all products sold to the public as well as compliance with all local zoning laws and regulations.

Proposed law retains present law.

Proposed law provides requirements for self-distribution. Brewers who produce less than 93,000 gallons of beer annually may self-distribute up to 46,500 gallons of the 250 barrels allowed pursuant to present law (R.S. 26:241) to retailers with certain Class A, Class B, and Class C permits.

Proposed law provides that brewers may self-distribute if the following conditions are met:

1. The brewer obtains a permit to self-distribute only products brewed on site from the commissioner.
2. The brewer does not have an existing distribution agreement with a permitted wholesale dealer.
3. The brewer owns or leases warehouse space that is maintained separately from the brewing facility.
4. The brewer owns or leases delivery equipment dedicated for the primary use of distributing products brewed at the brewing facility.
5. The brewer self-distributes products at a standard price to all retailers.
6. The brewer provides a monthly sales report to the office of alcohol and tobacco control, which in forth publishes these monthly reports on its website.
7. Any brewer that engages in self-distribution shall be subject to the rules and regulations contained in LAC Title 55, Part VII.

Present law (LAC Title 55, Part VII) provides for rules and regulations regarding alcohol and tobacco control in the Louisiana Administrative Code.

Present law provides a fee schedule for those engaged in the business of dealing in malt beverages or beverages of low alcoholic content.

CODING: Words in struck through type are deletions from existing law; words underscored are additions.
Proposed law retains present law and adds that brewers engaged in self-distribution shall pay a $1,000 permit fee.

(Amends R.S. 26:241(15); Adds R.S. 26:241(27) and (28), 242, and 271(A)(7))
