

Prior law made it unlawful for any person to produce, manufacture, distribute, or dispense any substance which is represented to be a controlled dangerous substance and which is an imitation controlled dangerous substance, or any controlled dangerous substance which is a counterfeit controlled dangerous substance.

New law retains the provisions of prior law and adds the transportation or delivery of an imitation or counterfeit controlled dangerous substance as an element of the crime.

Effective August 15, 2010.

(Amends R.S. 40:971.1(A))