DIGEST

SB 244 Engrossed 2026 Regular Session Allain

Present law provides for a commercial hunting season for alligators.

Proposed law retains present law and authorizes the commission to establish a special recreational alligator hunting season.

Proposed law provides that the season may allow for taking and possession of alligators by area. Provides for creation of quotas and tag allotments. Further authorizes the commission to modify the length of the season by area.

Proposed law authorizes creation of residency requirements and methods and hours of taking.

Proposed law provides for licensing and tagging requirements. Prohibits the taking of alligators out of season, by persons without licenses or tags, or by illegal methods. Provides that violation of proposed law is a class three violation.

Effective August 1, 2026.
