EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

Proposed legislation is anticipated to result in an indeterminable increase in statutory dedication expenditures within LCTCS and two-year public institutions in the LA State University and Southern University systems associated with the creation of the Workforce Instructor Capacity Program. The systems intend to design the program to operate through flexible, cost-sharing arrangements between the campuses and private-sector employers, utilizing adjunct-based instructional support tied to workforce demand. As a result, the cost impact to the systems is expected to be minimal, with private-sector employer contributions offsetting the majority of new expenditures.

The bill provides that a special fund in the treasury shall be created to support this program. The fund may receive state general fund transfers, legislative appropriations, donations, gifts, or grants received by the state treasurer. The bill expressly prohibits fund monies from supplanting existing state general fund appropriations to the institutions.

Creating a new statutory dedication will result in a marginal increase in workload for the Department of the Treasury, which can generally be absorbed within existing resources. However, to the extent that other legislative instruments create new statutory dedications, there may be material additional costs associated with the aggregate effort to administer these funds.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
