EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure. Proposed law increases the allowable administrative cost cap for the federal grant awarded to the Office of Broadband Development and Connectivity (OBDC) through the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Capital Projects Fund (CPF). Currently, administration costs for the GUMBO programs are allowed to be charged to the CPF but are limited to a total of 2%, approximately $3.5 M. Proposed law increases this to 5%, approximately $8.9 M, that would be eligible to be charged to the CPF. The additional funding will be utilized in FY 27 to fund expenses related to sub-grantee monitoring and compliance prior to the grant's expiration on 12/31/26.

REVENUE EXPLANATION
