SB 70 Engrossed

2016 Regular Session

Long

Present law prohibits persons who are required to register and provide notification as a sex offender pursuant to present law from engaging in the following types of employment:

- (1) Operate any bus, taxicab, or limousine for hire.
- (2) Engage in employment as a service worker who goes into a residence to provide any type of service.
- (3) Operate any carnival or amusement ride when the offense involved a minor.

Present law provides that any person who violates these provisions of present law shall be fined up to $10,000 and imprisoned at hard labor for not less than five years and no more than 10 years, three years of which must be served without the benefit of parole, probation, or suspension of sentence.

Proposed law retains present law and adds that it shall be unlawful for a registering sex offender to engage in employment as a door-to-door solicitor, peddler, or itinerant vendor selling any type of goods or services including magazines or periodicals or subscriptions to magazines or periodicals. Provides that any person who violates the provisions of proposed law shall be subject to the penalties provided for in present law.
