SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 118

BY SENATOR PERRY

1

COMMENDATIONS. Commends the city of Abbeville on winning its district title in the Louisiana Garden Club Federation's Cleanest City contest.

A RESOLUTION

| 2 | To commend the city of Abbeville, Louisiana, on winning its district title in the Louisiana |
|----|--|
| 3 | Garden Club Federation's Cleanest City contest. |
| 4 | WHEREAS, the Louisiana Garden Club Federation has sponsored the Cleanest City |
| 5 | contest since 1958 and the aim of the contest is to instill civic pride in the individual citizens |
| 6 | and through this effort, the appearance of towns and cities in the state would be improved; |
| 7 | and |
| 8 | WHEREAS, over the years Abbeville's closest competitor has been the central |
| 9 | Louisiana city of Pineville, which prevailed over Abbeville in 2013 and Abbeville last won |
| 10 | the coveted prize in 2012; and |
| 11 | WHEREAS, Abbeville mayor, Mark Piazza, stated that he had a good feeling about |
| 12 | his city's chances of winning the competition this year because it had been a city-wide effort |
| 13 | to clean the city, and his optimism was rewarded when the garden club federation notified |
| 14 | him that Abbeville would receive the state title of cleanest city; and |
| 15 | WHEREAS, judges of the contest reported that Abbeville and Pineville appeared to |
| 16 | have earned similar scores, but the mayor stated that an early morning trash pick-up by |
| 17 | volunteers on the day of the judging probably made the difference for the Vermilion Parish |
| 18 | city; and |
