HB 635

2016 Regular Session

Hunter

CRIME: Adds the use of unmanned aircraft systems as elements of certain crimes involving the invasion of privacy

Synopsis of Senate Amendments

1. Technical amendments only.

Digest of Bill as Finally Passed by Senate

Present law provides for the crimes of video voyeurism, voyeurism, and Peeping Tom. All of the crimes involve the uninvited observation of another for lewd or lascivious purposes.

Proposed law retains present law and includes the use of unmanned aircraft systems as an element of each of these crimes.

Proposed law defines an "unmanned aircraft system" as an unmanned, powered aircraft that does not carry a human operator, can be autonomous or remotely piloted or operated, and can be expendable or recoverable.

(Amends R.S. 14:283(A)(1), 283.1(A), and 284(B); Adds R.S. 14:283(G), 283.1(C), and 284(D))
