Proposed law removes the member of the House Committee on Retirement appointed by the Speaker as trustee of each board and instead places the chairman of the House Committee on Retirement as an ex officio member of each such board.

Present law provides that the chairmen of the House Committee on Retirement and the Senate Committee on Retirement, as ex officio members of the state and statewide retirement system boards, may authorize legislative staff to attend executive sessions of any board or committee meeting of the state or statewide retirement systems. Proposed law removes language specifying that this authority of the chairmen is exercised in their capacity as ex officio members of the state and statewide retirement system boards.
