CHAPTER 20. SAFE HARBOR FOR SEXUALLY EXPLOITED

EXPLOITATION OF CHILDREN

Art. 725. Findings and purpose

The legislature finds that arresting, prosecuting, and incarcerating victimized children victimized by commercial sexual activity or labor trafficking serves to re-traumatize them and to increase their feelings of low self-esteem, which only makes making the process of recovery more difficult. Both federal and international law recognize that sexually exploited children are the victims of crime and should be treated as such. Therefore, sexually exploited children should shall not be prosecuted for criminal acts related to prostitution their exploitation, except those crimes listed in Article 305(A). Instead, sexually exploited children should, where possible, shall be diverted into services that address the their needs of these children outside of the justice system. Sexually exploited Exploited children deserve the protection of child welfare services, including diversion, crisis intervention, counseling, and emergency housing services. The purpose of this Chapter is to protect a child from further victimization after the child is discovered to be a sexually an exploited child by ensuring that a child protective response is in place in the state. This is to be accomplished by conclusively presuming that any child engaged in prostitution, prostitution by massage, or any crime against nature by solicitation is a victim of sex trafficking and providing these children with the is exploited and that any child victim of labor trafficking is exploited. These children shall be provided appropriate care and services where possible. In determining the need for and capacity of services that may be provided, the Department of Children and Family Services shall recognize that sexually exploited children have separate and distinct service needs according to gender, and every effort should be made to ensure these children are not prosecuted or treated as juvenile delinquents adjudicated delinquent, but instead are given the appropriate social services.

| 1  | Comments – 2017   |
|----|---|
| 2  | The 2017 revision expands the law to protect victims of labor trafficking and       |
| 3  | clarifies that the presumption of trafficking is conclusive. This reflects the      |
| 4  | underlying public policy that a child victim of sexual or labor exploitation cannot |
| 5  | consent to his victimization.   |
| 6  | Art. 725.1. Definitions   |
| 7  | As used in this Chapter, the following terms and phrases shall have the             |
| 8  | following meaning, unless the context requires otherwise:                           |
| 9  | (1) "Commercial sexual activity" means any sexual act performed or                  |
| 10 | conducted when anything of value has been given, promised, or received by any       |
| 11 | person.   |
| 12 | (2) "Safe house" means a residential facility operated by an authorized             |
| 13 | agency, including a nonprofit agency, with experience in providing services to      |
| 14 | sexually exploited children and approved by the department to provide shelter for   |
| 15 | sexually exploited children. "Debt bondage" means inducing an individual to         |
| 16 | provide any of the following:   |
| 17 | (a) Commercial sexual activity in payment toward or satisfaction of a               |
| 18 | real or purported debt.   |
| 19 | (b) Labor or services in payment toward or satisfaction of a real or                |
| 20 | purported debt if either of the following occurs:                                   |
| 21 | (i) The reasonable value of the labor or services provided is not applied           |
| 22 | toward the liquidation of the debt.   |
| 23 | (ii) The length of the labor or services is not defined and the nature of the       |
| 24 | labor or services is not defined.   |
| 25 | (3) "Sexually exploited child" means any person under the age of eighteen           |
| 26 | who has been subject to sexual exploitation because the person either:              |
| 27 | (a) Is a victim of trafficking of children for sexual purposes under                |
| 28 | R.S. 14:46.3.   |
| 29 | (b) Is a victim of child sex trafficking under 18 U.S.C. 1591.                      |

- (4) "Exploited child" means a child who is victimized by commercial sexual activity or labor trafficking.
- (5) "Labor trafficking" means labor or services obtained through the use of fraud, force, or coercion including involuntary servitude, peonage, debt bondage, or slavery.

Comments - 2017

- (a) The definitions of "commercial sexual activity" and "debt bondage" are taken from R.S. 14:46.2(C). "Exploited" is a new term that encompasses both types of victimization. "Labor trafficking" is also a new term taken from the federal Trafficking Victims Protection Act, 22 U.S.C. 7101 et seq.
- (b) The law prior to the 2017 revision vested responsibility for sexually exploited children in the Department of Public Safety and Corrections, office of juvenile justice. Because this revision treats a victim of trafficking as a child in need of care, the Department of Children and Family Services is the lead agency.

Art. 725.2. Safe house for sexually exploited children Capacity to consent

A. The department may, to the extent funds are available, operate or contract with an appropriate nongovernmental agency with experience working with sexually exploited children to operate one or more safe houses in a geographically appropriate area of the state. Each safe house shall provide safe and secure housing and specialized services for sexually exploited children. Nothing in this Article shall be construed to preclude an agency from applying for and accepting grants, gifts, and bequests for funds from private individuals, foundations, and the federal government for the purpose of creating or carrying out the duties of a safe house for sexually exploited children. A child lacks the capacity to consent to commercial sexual activity. Any child who is taken into custody for prostitution, prostitution by massage, or any crime against nature as well as a child who is a victim of trafficking for sexual purposes is conclusively presumed to be exploited, and shall not be prosecuted, convicted, or adjudicated for any criminal or delinquency offenses related to commercial sexual activity.

B. Each safe house operating under a contract with the department to provide services to sexually exploited children pursuant to the provisions of this Article shall submit to the department an annual report on their operations including information on the services offered, geographic areas served, number of children served, and individual status updates on each child served. This information shall not include the name, address, or other identifying information of the child served. The department shall compile the data from all the reports submitted by each safe house pursuant to the provisions of this Article and shall provide this information in an annual report to the legislature on or before the first day of February each year. A child lacks the capacity to consent to any act of labor trafficking. A child engaged in any act of labor trafficking, including involuntary servitude, peonage, or slavery, is conclusively presumed to be a victim of labor trafficking, and shall not be prosecuted, convicted, or adjudicated for any criminal or delinquency offenses related to labor trafficking.

Comments - 2017

- (a) Paragraph A of this Article restates a portion of the substance of former Article 725. It resolves an ambiguity in R.S. 14:46.3(E) regarding whether all children taken into custody for prostitution, prostitution by massage, or any crime against nature, as opposed to only those children who are proved to be victims of trafficking, are immune from prosecution for criminal or delinquency offenses related to commercial sexual activity. Under the revision, all children taken into custody for those offenses are conclusively presumed to be exploited and may not be prosecuted for offenses related to commercial sexual activity.
- (b) Paragraph B of this Article is new. Children as well as their parents or caretakers can become victims of abusive labor practices, or parents can subject their children to such abuse. This change is consistent with federal law that recognizes that labor trafficking bondage, servitude, peonage, and slavery are perhaps as common as sexual abuse.

(c) Twenty states, as of 2016, grant immunity to all children under the age of eighteen. See National Conference of State Legislatures, Human Trafficking State Laws. The 2017 revision ensures that all children under the age of eighteen who engage in commercial sexual activity, labor trafficking, and any criminal or delinquency offenses related to those acts are treated as victims rather than delinquents. This policy, along with the federal Trafficking Victims Protection Act, 22 U.S.C. 7101 et seq., recognizes that these children were lured or coerced into these activities by persons who took advantage of their immaturity and special vulnerability. The Uniform Act on Prevention of and Remedies for Human Trafficking (2013) further acknowledges that "...[i]mmunity is provided because minor victims of human trafficking should not be viewed as legally capable of consenting to their own exploitation. Immunity in such cases recognizes the facts that: (a) the real culpability for the offenses of the minor resides with the coercing or exploiting party; and (b) the minor is a child in need of counseling, treatment, and support rather than prosecution."

Art. 725.3. Statewide protocol Applicability of children in need of care procedure

The department shall develop a statewide protocol for helping to coordinate the delivery of services to sexually exploited children and shall work with court intake officers to ensure that all state, federal, and community-based resources for sexually exploited children are known and available to children who have been granted diversion under Article 839. An exploited child is a child in need of care, and unless otherwise specified in this Chapter, the provisions of Title VI of this Code shall govern.

Comments - 2017

In addition to abused and neglected children, the child-in-need-of-care jurisdictional category already expressly includes "The child [who] is a victim of human trafficking or trafficking of children for sexual purposes." See Art. 606(A)(6). The 2017 revision specifically adds exploited children within the greater framework

1 of child in need of care proceedings. 2 Art. 725.4. Duties of law enforcement A. After the initial encounter with a child reasonably believed to be 3 exploited, a peace officer or a probation officer of the court shall take the child 4 5 into custody without a court order pursuant to Article 621. B. The officer shall notify the Crime Victims Services Bureau of the 6 7 Department of Public Safety and Corrections that the child may be eligible for 8 special services and, as a mandatory reporter, shall notify the Department of 9 Children and Family Services that the child is in need of protective services. 10 C. The officer shall file a complaint alleging that the child is in need of 11 care in the appropriate juvenile court. 12 Comments - 2017 13 (a) Often the first official to come into contact with an exploited child is a peace officer, but whoever is the official, that professional must be the one to 14 activate the protective services that are available at the state or community level. 15 16 Although Article 725.3 provides that all provisions of the Child in Need of Care Title are generally applicable, Paragraph A of this Article specifically provides that an 17 officer's apprehension of a child reasonably believed to be exploited is authorized 18 19 without a warrant in accordance with Article 621. 20 (b) Paragraph B of this Article notes that the officers are mandatory reporters 21 of facts reasonably indicating exploitation. See Arts. 603(17)(e) and 610(A). R.S. 22 46:2162 also provides for assistance to victims of human trafficking and requires notification to the Crime Victims Services Bureau. See Art. 622, which imposes 23 24 limitations on the places where an exploited child can be housed. 25 (c) Paragraph C of this Article ensures continuing juvenile court oversight of the victim. 26 27 Art. 725.5. Protective custody

A. Based upon an affidavit executed by a peace officer or other credible person that to the best of his knowledge and belief, the exploited child appears

|----|--|
| 3  | be taken to a community mental health center, a public or private general                |
| 4  | hospital, or a detoxification center.  |
| 5  | B. No victim may be ordered into protective custody without a court                      |
| 6  | order based on allegations specified in Article 1432. The duration of the order          |
| 7  | is governed by Article 1432.   |
| 8  | Comments – 2017  |
| 9  | (a) This Article does not substantially change the law. Nevertheless, there are          |
| 10 | three modifications: (1) This Article requires a physician's certificate in all cases,   |
| 11 | because even a tentative diagnosis required to justify a time-limited denial of liberty  |
| 12 | ought to be made by a physician, and not all coroners are physicians; (2) given the      |
| 13 | easy availability of oral instanter orders, it prohibits protective custody without a    |
| 14 | court order; and (3) it omits the coroner's office as an appropriate treatment facility. |
| 15 | (b) The calculation of the time periods is governed by Article 114. If the               |
| 16 | period is less than seven days, weekend days and legal holidays are excluded from        |
| 17 | the computation. If the period is seven days or more, weekend days and legal             |
| 18 | holidays are included in the calculation.  |
| 19 | (c) An alternative method of hospitalization is provided in Chapter 9 of Title           |
| 20 | XIV of this Code. See Arts. 1434-1459, Judicial Commitment Procedure.                    |
| 21 | Art. 725.6. Duties of the Department of Children and Family Services                     |
| 22 | A. Working with law enforcement, the department shall fully cooperate                    |
| 23 | in investigating allegations of child exploitation.                                      |
| 24 | B. The department shall be the lead agency in assessing the child's needs                |
| 25 | and in developing and coordinating a plan for the delivery of specialized                |
| 26 | services. It shall use a collaborative, multi-disciplinary approach, working with        |
| 27 | all other federal, state, and community agencies, both public and private, and           |
| 28 | with law enforcement to identify the services that each can provide to the child.        |
| 29 | C. The department shall work with all court intake officers to ensure                    |

| 7  | perpetrator of child exploitation.  |
| 8  | F. The department shall develop policies that reflect best practices. It              |
| 9  | shall follow all protocols developed by the Louisiana Human Trafficking               |
| 10 | Commission and be responsible for compiling data requested by the                     |
| 11 | commission. In addition, the department shall provide the commission with a           |
| 12 | statewide protocol for coordinating the delivery of services and the use of all       |
| 13 | available resources.  |
| 14 | Comments – 2017   |
| 15 | (a) The national consensus is that child victims of trafficking should be             |

| 27 | reports and records of exploitation, including the existence of such records. The     |
| 28 | identity, pictures, and images of the child victim and his family shall be            |

| 5  | The source of this Article is Section 13 of the Uniform Act on Prevention of         |
| 6  | and Remedies for Human Trafficking (2013). As its commentary notes: "Law             |

| 8  | families confidential both to protect them from traffickers and to lessen the impact |
| 9  | of the adverse publicity."   |
| 10 | Art. 725.8. Motion to set aside adjudications, convictions; expungement and          |
| 11 | sealing of records   |
| 12 | A. A person adjudicated for prostitution, labor trafficking, or any other            |
| 13 | offense related to his exploitation, except those crimes listed in Article 305(A),   |
| 14 | may file a motion with the appropriate court to set aside the adjudication and       |
| 15 | to expunge and seal the record of the judgment.                                      |
| 16 | B. The motion shall be in writing and shall describe the supporting                  |
| 17 | evidence with particularity. The motion may include copies of any documents          |
| 18 | showing that the person is entitled to relief under this Article.                    |
| 19 | C. The motion shall be served on the district attorney.                              |
| 20 | D. The court shall grant the motion if the court finds by a preponderance            |
| 21 | of the evidence that the violation was a result of the person's having been a        |
| 22 | victim of exploitation. Documentation provided by a federal, state, or local         |
| 23 | government agency of a person's status as a victim of exploitation shall create      |
| 24 | a presumption that the violation was a result of the person's having been a          |
| 25 | victim of exploitation. However, such documentation shall not be required to         |

| 27 | E. If the motion is granted, the court shall order the expungement and               |
| 28 | sealing of the record and report of the juvenile proceedings including all records   |
| 29 | and files related to the person's arrest, citation, investigation, charge,           |

| 1  | delinquency proceedings, adjudication, and disposition for the offense. The                 |

| 5  | This Article is a revision of prior Articles 918(D) and 923. In accordance                  |
