1	Art. 875.1. Determination of substantial financial hardship to the defendant
2	A. The purpose of imposing financial obligations on an offender who is
3	convicted of a criminal offense is to hold the offender accountable for his action, to
4	compensate victims for any actual pecuniary loss or costs incurred in connection
5	with a criminal prosecution, to defray the cost of court operations, and to provide
6	services to offenders and victims. These financial obligations should not create a
7	barrier to the offender's successful rehabilitation and reentry into society. Financial
8	obligations in excess of what an offender can reasonably pay undermine the primary
9	purpose of the justice system which is to deter criminal behavior and encourage
10	compliance with the law. Financial obligations that cause undue hardship on the
11	offender should be waived, modified, or forgiven. Creating a payment plan for the 12	offender that is based upon the ability to pay, results in financial obligations that the
13	offender is able to comply with and often results in more money collected. Offenders
14	who are consistent in their payments and in good faith try to fulfill their financial
15	obligations should be rewarded for their efforts.
16	B. For purposes of this Article, "financial obligations" shall include any fine,
17	fee, cost, restitution, or other monetary obligation authorized by this Code or by the
18	Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950 and imposed upon the defendant as part of a
19	criminal sentence, incarceration, or as a condition of the defendant's release on
20	probation or parole.
21	C.(1) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, prior to ordering
22	the imposition or enforcement of any financial obligations as defined by this Article,
23	the court shall determine whether payment in full of the aggregate amount of all the
24	financial obligations to be imposed upon the defendant would cause substantial
25	financial hardship to the defendant or his dependents.
26	(2) For purposes of this determination, "substantial financial hardship" has
27	the same meaning as set forth in R.S. 15:175, and shall be presumed if the defendant
28	has been deemed "indigent" for purposes of appointment of counsel pursuant to R.S.
29	15:175.

1	(3) The defendant may not waive the judicial determination of a substantial
2	financial hardship required by the provisions of this Paragraph.
3	D.(1) If the court determines that payment in full of the aggregate amount
4	of all financial obligations imposed upon the defendant would cause substantia
5	financial hardship to the defendant or his dependents, the court shall do either of the
6	following:
7	(a) Waive all or any portion of the financial obligations.
8	(b) Order a payment plan that requires the defendant to make a monthly
9	payment to fulfill the financial obligations.
10	(2)(a) The amount of each monthly payment for the payment plan ordered
11	pursuant to the provisions of Subsubparagraph (D)(1)(b) of this Article shall be equal
12	to the defendant's average gross daily income for an eight-hour work day.
13	(b) If the court has ordered restitution, half of the defendant's monthly
14	payment shall be distributed toward the defendant's restitution obligation.
15	(c) During any periods of unemployment, homelessness, or other
16	circumstances in which the defendant is unable to make the monthly payment, the
17	court or the defendant's probation and parole officer is authorized to impose a
18	payment alternative, including but not limited to any of the following: substance
19	abuse treatment, education, job training, or a maximum of fifteen hours of
20	community service.
21	(3) If, after the initial determination of the defendant's ability to fulfill his
22	financial obligations, the defendant's circumstances and ability to pay his financial
23	obligations change, the defendant or his attorney may file a motion with the court to
24	reevaluate the defendant's circumstances and determine, in the same manner as the
25	initial determination, whether under the defendant's current circumstances payment
26	in full of the aggregate amount of all the financial obligations imposed upon the
27	defendant would cause substantial financial hardship to the defendant or his
28	dependents. Upon such motion, if the court determines that the defendant's current
29	circumstances would cause substantial financial hardship to the defendant or his

1	dependents, the court may either waive or modify the defendant's financial
2	obligation, or recalculate the amount of the monthly payment made by the defendant
3	under the payment plan set forth in Subsubparagraph (D)(1)(b) of this Article.
4	E. If a defendant is ordered to make monthly payments under a payment plan
5	established pursuant to the provisions of Subsubparagraph (D)(1)(b) of this Article,
6	the defendant's outstanding financial obligations resulting from his criminal
7	conviction are forgiven and considered paid-in-full if the defendant makes consistent
8	monthly payments for either twelve consecutive months or consistent monthly
9	payments for half of the defendant's term of supervision, whichever is longer.
10	* * *
11	Art. 883.2. Restitution to victim
12	* * *
13	D. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, if the 14	defendant is found to be indigent and therefore unable to make restitution in full at
15	the time of conviction, the court may order a periodic payment plan consistent with
16	the person's financial ability pursuant to the provisions of Article 875.1.
17	Art. 884. Sentence of fine with imprisonment for default
18	$\underline{A}$ . If a sentence imposed includes a fine or costs, the sentence shall provide
19	that in default of payment thereof the defendant shall be imprisoned for a specified
20	period not to exceed one year; provided that where the maximum prison sentence
21	which may be imposed as a penalty for a misdemeanor is six months or less, the total
22	period of imprisonment upon conviction of the offense, including imprisonment for
23	default in payment of a fine or costs, shall not exceed six months for that offense.
24	B. The provisions of this Article do not apply if the court has determined,
25	pursuant to the provisions of Article 875.1, that payment in full of the aggregate
26	amount of all financial obligations imposed upon the defendant would cause
27	substantial financial hardship to the defendant or his dependents. In such cases, the
28	provisions of Article 875.1 shall apply.

9	criminal proceeding and subsequent proceedings necessary to enforce the judgment
10	in either civil or criminal court, or both. Collection of the judgment may be enforced
11	in either criminal or civil court, or both, in the same manner as a money judgment
12	in a civil case. In addition, particular courts may provide by court rule for

3	obligation, including but not limited to court costs, fines, costs of prosecution, and

8	Art. 895.1. Probation; restitution; judgment for restitution; fees
9	A.(1) When a court places the defendant on probation, it shall, as a condition
10	of probation, order the payment of restitution in cases where the victim or his family
11	has suffered any direct loss of actual cash, any monetary loss pursuant to damage to
12	or loss of property, or medical expense. The court shall order restitution in a
13	reasonable sum not to exceed the actual pecuniary loss to the victim in an amount
14	certain. However, any additional or other damages sought by the victim and
15	available under the law shall be pursued in an action separate from the establishment
16	of the restitution order as a civil money judgment provided for in Subparagraph (2)
17	of this Paragraph. The If the court has determined, pursuant to the provisions of
18	Article 875.1, that payment in full of the aggregate amount of all financial

2	judgment in a civil case. Likewise, the judgment may be filed as a lien as provided
3	by law for judgment creditors. Prior to the enforcement of the restitution order, or
4	order for costs or fines, the defendant shall be notified of his right to have a judicial
5	determination of the amount of restitution, cost, or fine and a determination pursuant
6	to Article 875.1 of whether payment in full of the aggregate amount of all financial
7	obligations imposed upon the defendant would cause substantial financial hardship
8	to the defendant or his dependents. Such notice shall be served personally by the
9	district attorney's office of the respective judicial district in which the restitution,
10	cost, or fine is ordered.

HB 249 Original	2017 Regular Session	Magee

Abstract: Provides relative to the payment of all monetary obligations related to an offender's conviction, and provides relative to the court's authority to modify or waive the obligation based on its determination of the offender's ability to pay.

When an offender is convicted of an offense, present law authorizes or requires the court to impose certain financial obligations upon the offender, including but not limited to fines, fees, court costs, and restitution.

Present law further provides for the following options for enforcement after nonpayment of these financial obligations:

- (1) If the defendant is found to be indigent and therefore unable to make restitution in full at the time of conviction, the court may order a periodic payment plan consistent with the person's financial ability.
- (2) If the defendant defaults on the payment of fines or costs imposed as part of the sentence, the defendant shall be imprisoned for a specified period of time.
- (3) If the defendant fails to pay a fine, the court may order the driver's license to be surrendered for a period of up to 180 days.
- (4) If the defendant fails to pay a fine, restitution, or costs within sixty days after the sentence is imposed, the court is authorized to sign a judgment against the defendant in a sum equal to the fine or restitution, plus judicial interest, and any costs of the criminal proceeding and subsequent proceedings necessary to enforce the judgment in either civil or criminal court, or both.
- (5) Although present law requires all costs and fines to be paid immediately, in some cases that involve violations of traffic laws or ordinances, the court may grant the defendant five judicial days after rendition of judgment to pay any costs and any fine imposed.
- (6) If a defendant has been sentenced to probation and has a monetary obligation, the court may extend the period of probation until the monetary obligation is extinguished.

- (7) If the defendant is ordered to pay restitution as a condition of probation, the court may order that the restitution be paid in a lump sum or in monthly installments based on the earning capacity and assets of the defendant.
- (8) Prior to the enforcement of any restitution order, the defendant shall be notified of the right to have a judicial determination of the amount of restitution, cost, or fine.
- (9) The court may, in lieu of a monthly probation supervision fee, require the defendant to perform a specified amount of community service work each month if the court finds that the defendant is unable to pay the supervision fee.
- (10) Each district attorney's office is authorized to establish a special division in the office designated as the "restitution recovery division" for the administration, collection, and enforcement of victim restitution, victim compensation assessments, probation fees, and payments in civil or criminal proceedings ordered by the court, judgments entered which have not been otherwise vacated, or judicial relief given from the operation of the order or judgment. The district attorney is authorized to take all lawful action necessary to require compliance with court-ordered payments.

Proposed law makes the following changes to present law:

- (1) Provides that notwithstanding any provision of present law, prior to ordering the imposition of any financial obligation, the court shall determine whether payment in full of the aggregate amount of all the financial obligations imposed upon the defendant would cause substantial financial hardship to the defendant or his dependents. This determination cannot be waived by the defendant.
- (2) Defines "financial obligation" as any fine, fee, cost, restitution, or other monetary obligation authorized by present law and imposed upon the defendant as part of a criminal sentence, incarceration, or as a condition of the defendant's release on probation or parole.
- (3) If the court determines that payment in full of the aggregate amount of all financial obligations imposed upon the defendant would cause substantial financial hardship to the defendant or his dependents, requires the court to either waive all or any portion of the financial obligations or order a payment plan that requires the defendant to make a monthly payment to fulfill the financial obligations.
- (4) In cases where restitution has been ordered, provides that half of the defendant's monthly payment shall be distributed toward the defendant's restitution obligation.
- (5) Provides that during any periods of unemployment, homelessness, or other circumstances in which the defendant is unable to make the monthly payment, the court or the defendant's probation and parole officer is authorized to impose a payment alternative, including but not limited to any of the following: substance abuse treatment, education, job training, or a maximum of 15 hours of community service.
- (6) If the defendant's circumstances and ability to pay change, authorizes the court, upon motion of the defendant or his attorney, to reevaluate the defendant's ability to continue the monthly payments and either waive or modify the defendant's financial obligation, or recalculate the amount of the monthly payment.
- (7) Provides that the defendant's outstanding financial obligations may be forgiven and considered paid-in-full if the defendant makes consistent monthly payments for either 12 consecutive months or consistent monthly payments for half of the defendant's term of supervision, whichever is longer.

Proposed law further amends present law to provide that if it is determined, pursuant to proposed law, that payment in full of the aggregate amount of all financial obligations imposed upon the defendant would cause substantial financial hardship to the defendant or his dependents, the defendant cannot be subject to the following penalties for failure to make payment:

- (1) Imprisonment for failure to pay fine or costs imposed as part of the sentence.
- (2) Suspension of driving privileges for failure to pay fines levied against him.
- (3) Enforcement of fines, restitution, or costs by civil process.

Finally, proposed law provides for the following:

- (1) Prohibits the court from extending a defendant's probation for the purpose of collecting any unpaid monetary obligation.
- (2) Prohibits the district attorney from filing a petition for revocation of probation, filing a petition for contempt of court, or instituting any other civil or criminal proceeding for the purpose of requiring a defendant to comply with his financial obligations.
- (3) Provides that prior to authorizing the issuance of a warrant for arrest for a missed payment or missed court appearance related to the defendant's failure to make payment, the court shall send notification to the defendant with information about the process for resolving missed payments, a statement that the defendant will not be jailed for inability to pay, and the date by which the defendant shall either make payment, request a payment alternative, or request a modification or waiver of his outstanding debt pursuant to the provisions of proposed law.
