DIGEST

SB 156 Original

2017 Regular Session

Lambert

Present LAC provides rules relative to educational requirements at juvenile detention facilities, including that the provider is to have written policies, procedures, and practices to ensure that each youth has access to the most appropriate educational services consistent with the youth's abilities and needs, taking into account his age, and level of functioning, and that the youth is to receive a free and appropriate public education.

Proposed LAC provides that these present LAC rules do not apply to juvenile detentions of 30 days or less.

Present LAC provides that at juvenile detention facilities, a staff member experienced in food service management is to supervise food service operations. Present LAC further provides that a nutritionist, dietitian, or other qualified professional is to ensure compliance with recommended food allowances and review a system of dietary allowances. Present LAC further provides that the kitchen, consisting of all food storage, food preparation, food distribution, equipment storage, and layout, must comply with office of public health requirements.

Proposed LAC provides that these present LAC rules do not apply to juvenile detentions of 30 days or less. Proposed LAC otherwise retains present LAC.

Present LAC provides that meals at juvenile detention facilities are to be planned and provide a well-balanced diet sufficient to meet nutritional needs.

Proposed LAC retains present LAC and adds that food and dietary allowances are to be in accordance with caloric tables published by the U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Services, National Institutes of Health, concerning caloric intake for juveniles.

Present LAC provides that youth at juvenile detention facilities are to receive snacks in the evenings.

Proposed LAC deletes this provision of present LAC.

Present LAC provides requirements relative to medical care at juvenile detention facilities, including that the provider must have availability or access to a physician or local emergency room 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Proposed LAC provides that for juvenile detentions of 30 days or less, the requirements of present LAC may be fulfilled by an adult facility within reasonable proximity to the juvenile detention facility that can provide the same services. Proposed LAC otherwise retains present LAC.

Present LAC provides that a juvenile detention facility's perimeters must be controlled by appropriate means to provide that youth remain within the perimeter and to prevent access by the general public without proper authorization. Present LAC further provides that facilities cannot utilize razor wire to secure the perimeter.

Proposed LAC provides that this present LAC prohibition does not apply to juvenile detentions of 30 days or less if the cost of removal of existing razor wire would be prohibitive. Proposed LAC otherwise retains present LAC.

Present LAC provides that dining areas at juvenile detention facilities must be clean, well lit, ventilated, and equipped with dining tables and appropriate seating for the dining tables.

Proposed LAC provides that for juvenile detentions of 30 days or less, separate dining facilities are not be required at the facility, and day rooms may be used for seated dining at tables. Proposed LAC otherwise retains present LAC.

Present LAC provides that sleeping areas at juvenile detention facilities must have ceilings a minimum of 10 feet from ceiling to floor.

Proposed LAC provides that for juvenile detentions of 30 days or less, ceilings may be a minimum of 8 feet from ceiling to floor. Proposed LAC otherwise retains present LAC.

Present LAC provides that in newly constructed or renovated juvenile detention facilities, doors to sleeping rooms are to be arranged alternately so that they are not across the corridor from each other.

Proposed LAC provides that for juvenile detentions of 30 days or less, doors to sleeping rooms may be across the corridor from each other. Proposed LAC otherwise retains present LAC.

Present LAC provides that at juvenile detention facilities, the provider must have a process in place to ensure clean laundry is available for the youth.

Proposed LAC provides that for juvenile detentions of 30 days or less, this present LAC requirement is met if there is an adult facility within reasonable proximity to the juvenile detention facility that can provide laundry services to the juvenile detention facility.

Effective upon signature of the governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.
