29 * * *

1 §121. Exemptions from tax on corporations

2 A. The following organizations shall be exempt from taxation under this 3 Chapter:

4 (1) Labor, agricultural, or horticultural organizations;

5 (2) Mutual savings banks, national banking corporations and banking 6 corporations organized under the laws of the State of Louisiana who pay a tax for 7 their shareholders or whose shareholders pay a tax on their shares of stock under 8 other laws of this state, and building and loan associations;

9 (3) Fraternal beneficiary societies, orders, or associations operating under 10 the lodge system or for the exclusive benefit of the members of a fraternity itself 11 operating under the lodge system, and providing for the payment of life, sick, 12 accident, or other benefits to members of such society, order or association or their 13 dependents;

14 (4) Cemetery companies owned and operated exclusively for the benefit of 15 their members or which are not operated for profit; and any corporation chartered 16 solely for burial purposes as a cemetery corporation and not permitted by its charter 17 to engage in any business not necessarily incident to that purpose, no part of the net
18 earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual;

19 (5) Corporations and any community chest, fund, or foundation, organized 20 and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational 21 purposes or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net 22 earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and 23 no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise 24 attempting to influence legislation. Any corporation, community chest, fund or 25 foundation which annually or more frequently contributes all of its current net 26 earnings, less a reasonable reserve not to exceed $1,000 for anticipated expenses and 27 future contributions, to organizations which are organized and operated exclusively 28 for religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes, or for the 29 prevention of cruelty to children or animals, shall itself be deemed organized and

1 operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational 2 purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, provided that said
3 corporation, community chest, fund or foundation is not engaged in the active 4 conduct of a trade or business, no part of its net earnings inures to the benefit of any 5 private shareholder or individual and no substantial part of its activities is carrying 6 on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation;

7 (6) Business leagues, chambers of commerce, real estate boards, or boards 8 of trade, not organized for profit and no part of the net earnings of which inures to 9 the benefit of any private shareholder or individual;

10 (7) Civic leagues or organizations not organized for profit but operated 11 exclusively for the promotion of social welfare, or local associations of employees, 12 the membership of which is limited to the employees of a designated person or 13 persons in a particular municipality, and the net earnings of which are devoted 14 exclusively to charitable, educational, or recreational purposes, and no substantial 15 part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to 16 influence legislation;

17 (8) Clubs organized and operated exclusively for pleasure, recreation, and 18 other nonprofitable purposes, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the 19 benefit of any private shareholder;

20 (9) Benevolent life insurance associations of a purely local character, mutual 21 ditch or irrigation companies, mutual or cooperative telephone companies, or like 22 organizations, but only if eighty-five per centum (85%) or more of the income
23 consists of amounts collected from members for the sole purpose of meeting losses 24 and expenses;

25 (10) Farmers' or other mutual hail, cyclone, casualty, or fire insurance 26 companies or associations (including interinsurers and reciprocal underwriters) the 27 income of which is used or held for the purpose of paying losses or expenses;

28 (11) Farmers', fruitgrowers', or like associations organized and operated on 29 a cooperative basis for the purpose of marketing the products of members or other

1 producers, and turning back to them the proceeds of sales, less the necessary
2 marketing expenses, on the basis of either the quantity or the value of the product 3 furnished by them, or for the purpose of purchasing supplies and equipment for the 4 use of members or other persons, and turning over such supplies and equipment to 5 them at actual cost, plus necessary expenses. Exemption shall not be denied any 6 such association because it has capital stock, if the dividend rate of such stock is 7 fixed at not to exceed the legal interest rate per annum on the value of the 8 consideration for which the stock was issued, and if substantially all of such stock 9 (other than nonvoting preferred stock, the owners of which are not entitled or 10 permitted to participate, directly or indirectly, in the profits of the association, upon 11 dissolution or otherwise, beyond the fixed dividends) is owned by producers who 12 market their products or purchase their supplies and equipment through the 13 association; nor shall exemption be denied any such association because there is 14 accumulated and maintained by it a reserve required by state law or a reasonable 15 reserve for any necessary purpose. Such an association may market the products of 16 nonmembers in an amount the value of which does not exceed the value of the 17 products marketed for members, and may purchase supplies and equipment for 18 nonmembers in an amount the value of which does not exceed the value of the 19 supplies and equipment purchased for members, provided the value of the purchases 20 made for persons who are neither members nor producers does not exceed fifteen per 21 cent of the value of all its purchases;

22 (12) Corporations organized by an association exempt under the provisions
23 of Paragraph (11) of this Section or members thereof, for the purpose of financing 24 the ordinary crop operations of such members or other producers, and operated in 25 conjunction with such association. Exemption shall not be denied any such 26 corporation because it has capital stock, if the dividend rate of such stock is fixed at 27 not to exceed the legal interest rate per annum on the value of the consideration for 28 which the stock was issued, and if substantially all such stock (other than nonvoting 29 preferred stock, the owners of which are not entitled or permitted to participate,

1 directly or indirectly, in the profits of the corporation, upon dissolution, or otherwise,
2 beyond the fixed dividends) is owned by such association, or members thereof; nor 3 shall exemption be denied any such corporation because there is accumulated and 4 maintained by it a reserve required by state law or a reasonable reserve for any 5 necessary purpose;

6 (13) Corporations organized for the exclusive purpose of holding title to 7 property, collecting income therefrom, and turning over the entire amount thereof, 8 less expenses, to organizations which are organized and operated exclusively for 9 religious, charitable, scientific, literary, and educational purposes, no part of the net
10 earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder;

11 (14) Voluntary employees' beneficiary association providing for the payment 12 of life, sick, accident, or other benefits to the members of such association or their 13 dependents, if no part of their net earnings inures (other than through such payments)
14 to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and if eighty-five per centum 15 (85%) or more of the income consists of amounts collected from members for the 16 sole purpose of making such payments and meeting expenses;

17 (15) Teachers' retirement fund associations of a purely local character, if no
18 part of their net earnings inures (other than through payment of retirement benefits) 19 to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, and if the income consists 20 solely of amounts received from public taxation, amounts received from assessments 21 upon the teaching salaries of members, and income in respect of investments.

Proposed law eliminates present law on January 1, 2021.

Proposed law provides that exclusions or exemptions in state law do not apply to any sales and use tax levied under R.S. 47:302, 321, 321.1, 331, or R.S. 51:1286 except as follows:

- (1) Any exclusion or exemption which causes the tax to be levied upon a sale which is not a retail sale of, not a use, consumption, distribution, or storage for use or consumption of, or not the lease or rental of, an item or article of tangible personal property.
- (2) The exclusion or exemption is required by federal law or the Constitution of the United States.
- (3) The exclusion or exemption is required pursuant to an agreement by the state of Louisiana for the operation of a public facility.

Proposed law provides that the limitation on such exclusions or exemptions apply to all taxable periods beginning on or after January 1, 2018.

Effective August 1, 2017.
