4 * * *

5 (4) Uncontested cases in which all parties other than the plaintiff are 6 represented by ~~a curator ad hoc~~ an attorney appointed by the court.

7 * * *

8 Comments - 2017

9 The purpose of the amendment to Subparagraph (A)(4) of this Article was to 10 align the provision with Article 5091 by replacing "a curator ad hoc" with "an 11 attorney appointed by the court."

12 * * *

13 Art. 284. Judicial powers of district court clerk

14 The clerk of a district court may render, confirm, and sign final default 15 ~~judgments by default~~ or judgments by confession in cases where the jurisdiction of 16 the court is concurrent with that of justices of the peace, as provided in Article 5011.

17 Comments - 2017

18 This Article has been amended to substitute "final default judgments" for 19 "judgments by default" to make the article more easily understood and to make the 20 terminology consistent with other related articles. This amendment is intended to be 21 stylistic only.

22 * * *

23 Art. 532. ~~Suits~~ Motions to stay in suits pending in Louisiana and federal or foreign
24 court

26 court of another state or of the United States on the same transaction or occurrence, 27 between the same parties in the same capacities, on motion of the defendant or on its 28 own motion, the court may stay all proceedings in the second suit until the first has 29 been discontinued or final judgment has been rendered.

30 * * *

1 Art. 925. Objections raised by declinatory exception; waiver

7 Comments - 2017

9 Article 532 appears in Chapter 3 of Book I of Title II, entitled "Lis Pendens," the 10 declinatory exception of lis pendens may be raised only under Article 531. Article 11 532 permits the court to stay the proceedings of a second suit pending resolution of 12 the first suit but does not permit the court to dismiss the second suit by granting an 13 exception of lis pendens.

14 * * *

15 Art. 928. Time of pleading exceptions

16 A. The declinatory exception and the dilatory exception shall be pleaded

22 exceptions are pleaded, they shall be filed at the same time, and may be incorporated
23 in the same pleading. When filed at the same time or in the same pleading, these 24 exceptions need not be pleaded in the alternative or in a particular order.

30 Pursuant to Article 1002, the defendant may file an answer or other pleading at any

31 "judgment of default" and "judgment by default" to make the article more easily

1 understood and to make the terminology consistent within the article and with other
2 related articles. A preliminary default is not a judgment. A final judgment
3 confirming a preliminary default is now referred to as a "final default judgment."
4 These amendments are intended to be stylistic only.

12 permit documentary evidence to be filed in the record in any electronically stored
13 format authorized by the local rules of the district court or approved by the clerk of 14 the district court for receipt of evidence. If no answer or other pleading is filed 15 timely, this confirmation may be made after two days, exclusive of holidays, from 16 the entry of the ~~judgment of~~ preliminary default. When a ~~judgment of~~ preliminary

19 preliminary default must be sent by certified mail by the party obtaining the 20 ~~judgment of~~ preliminary default to counsel of record for the party in default, or if 21 there is no counsel of record, to the party in default, at least seven days, exclusive of 22 holidays, before confirmation of the ~~judgment of~~ preliminary default.

26 court may, under the circumstances of the case, require additional evidence in the 27 form of oral testimony before entering a final default judgment.

29 plaintiff with corroborating evidence, which may be by affidavits and exhibits
30 annexed thereto which contain facts sufficient to establish a prima facie case, shall 31 be admissible, self-authenticating, and sufficient proof of such demand. The court

1           may, under the circumstances of the case, require additional evidence in the form of
2           oral testimony before entering a final default judgment.

3                   (3) When the sum due is on an open account or a promissory note or other
4           negotiable instrument, an affidavit of the correctness thereof shall be prima facie
5           proof. When the demand is based upon a promissory note or other negotiable
6           instrument, no proof of any signature thereon shall be required.

7                   C. In those proceedings in which the sum due is on an open account or a
8           promissory note, other negotiable instrument, or other conventional obligation, or a

10          or more mortgages, pledges, or other security for the open account, promissory note,
11          negotiable instrument, conventional obligation, or deficiency judgment derived 12          therefrom is sought to be enforced, maintained, or recognized, or in which the 13          amount sought is that authorized by R.S. 9:2782 for a check dishonored for 14          nonsufficient funds, a hearing in open court shall not be required unless the judge,

17          proposed final default judgment. The judge shall, within seventy-two hours of

23          judgment shall be sent to the plaintiff by the clerk of court, and notice of the signing
24          of the final default judgment shall be given as provided in Article 1913.

26          narrative report of the treating physician or dentist may be offered in lieu of his 27          testimony.

28                   E. Notwithstanding any other provisions of law to the contrary, when the 29          demand is for divorce under Civil Code Article 103(1) or (5), whether or not the

1 demand contains a claim for relief incidental or ancillary thereto, a hearing in open
2 court shall not be required unless the judge, in his discretion, directs that a hearing
3 be held. The plaintiff shall submit to the court an affidavit specifically attesting to 4 and testifying as to the truth of all of the factual allegations contained in the petition,
5 the original and not less than one copy of the proposed final judgment, and a
6 certification which shall indicate the type of service made on the defendant, the date
7 of service, the date a preliminary default was entered, and a certification by the clerk

13 filed by the defendant, the judge shall, after two days, exclusive of holidays, of entry 14 of a preliminary default, review the affidavit, proposed final default judgment, and 15 certification, render and sign the proposed final default judgment, or direct that a
16 hearing be held. The minutes shall reflect rendition and signing of the final default
17 judgment.

HB 439 Engrossed

2017 Regular Session

Zeringue

Abstract: Provides for continuous revisions to the Code of Civil Procedure and related provisions of the Revised Statutes.

Present law (C.C.P. Arts. 284, 928(A), 1002, 1701 - 1704, 1843, 1913(B) and (C), 2002(A)(2), 4904, 4921, 4921.1(C), and 5095, R.S. 13:3205, and R.S. 23:1316 and 1316.1) uses terms including "default", "default judgment", "judgment by default", and "judgment of default" for both the preliminary default and final default judgment procedures.

Proposed law clarifies present law by consistently using the terms "preliminary default" and "final default judgment" throughout.

Present law (C.C.P. Arts. 253.3(A)(4) and 3955(B)) uses the term "curator ad hoc".

Proposed law clarifies present law by replacing the term "curator ad hoc" with "an attorney appointed by the court" and "an attorney appointed to represent the absentee defendant" in accordance with C.C.P. Art. 5091.

Present law (C.C.P. Art. 532) permits the court to stay all proceedings in suits brought in a Louisiana court while suit is also pending in another jurisdiction.

Proposed law clarifies that the procedure provided under present law is accomplished by a motion to stay rather than an exception of lis pendens.

Present law (C.C.P. Art. 925(A)(3)) sets forth the objections that may be raised as declinatory exceptions.

Proposed law clarifies that the exception of lis pendens under present law is provided only by C.C.P. Art. 531.

Present law (C.C.P. Art. 1702(E)) requires that when the plaintiff's demand is for divorce under C.C. Art. 103(1) or (5), the plaintiff must submit an affidavit, proposed final judgment, and certification that service was properly made and the procedural requirements of the preliminary default process were properly followed.

Proposed law adds to present law the requirement that when the plaintiff's demand is for divorce under C.C. Art. 103(5), the plaintiff shall also submit to the court a certified copy of the protective order or injunction rendered after a contradictory hearing or consent decree.

Present law (C.C.P. Arts. 3861, 3864, 3901, and 3902) provides for the applicability of mandamus and quo warranto proceedings to corporations.

Proposed law adds to present law that these proceedings shall also be applicable to limited liability companies.

Present law (C.C.P. Art. 253) provides for the pleadings, documents, and exhibits to be filed with the clerk of court.

Proposed law adds to present law that the clerk of court shall not refuse to accept any pleading or other document solely on the ground that it was signed by electronic signature. Proposed law also provides for a delayed effective date of Jan. 1, 2018.

Present law (C.C.P. Art. 1067) provides with respect to the barring of all incidental demands by prescription or peremption but appears in the section of the C.C.P. on Reconviction specifically.

Proposed law redesignates present law as C.C.P. Art. 1041 so it appears in the section of the C.C.P. on General Dispositions of Incidental Actions.

(Amends C.C.P. Arts. 253.3(A)(4), 284, 532(heading), 925(A)(3), 928(A), 1002, 1701 - 1704, 1843, 1913(B) and (C), 2002(A)(2), 3861, 3864, 3901, 3902, 3955(B), 4904, 4921, 4921.1(C), and 5095, R.S. 13:3205(intro. para.), and R.S. 23:1316 and 1316.1(A); Adds C.C.P. Art. 253(E); Redesignates C.C.P. Art. 1067)
