6 §1345.8. Survivors' benefit for members killed in the line of duty; death by an 7 intentional act of violence

8 A. If a member's death occurs in the line of duty or is a direct result of an 9 injury sustained while in the line of duty, survivor benefits shall be payable to 10 qualified survivors as provided for in this Section, except that a survivor shall be 11 eligible for benefits under this Section without regard to the amount of time that the 12 surviving spouse was married to the deceased member and without regard to the 13 amount of time that the deceased was a member of this plan. This benefit is payable 14 only if the injury or injuries were sustained while on active duty status.

15 B.(1) If the member has a surviving spouse, a child or children who are 16 minors, have a disability, or are mentally incapacitated, or both a surviving spouse 17 and a child or children, the amount of the total benefit shall equal eighty percent 18 of the member's average compensation. The benefit shall be shared equally by the 19 surviving spouse and any children. When a child who neither has a disability nor is 20 mentally incapacitated no longer meets the definition of minor child under R.S.
 21 11:1301, his benefit shall cease, and the remaining beneficiaries shall have their 22 shares adjusted accordingly.

23 (2) If the member has a surviving spouse, a child or children who are 24 minors, have a disability, or are mentally incapacitated, or both a surviving 25 spouse and a child or children, and the member is killed by an intentional act 26 of violence or dies as a direct result of an injury sustained as a consequence of 27 an intentional act of violence, the amount of the total benefit shall equal one 28 hundred percent of the member's salary at the time of death. The benefit shall 29 be shared equally by the surviving spouse and any children. When a child who

1 neither has a disability nor is mentally incapacitated no longer meets the 2 definition of minor child under R.S. 11:1301, his benefit shall cease, and the 3 remaining beneficiaries shall have their shares adjusted accordingly.

4 C. Notwithstanding the forfeiture provisions of R.S. 11:1321, the benefit 5 of a surviving spouse covered by Subsection B of this Section shall be paid until 6 the death of the surviving spouse.

7 D. Any surviving spouse of a member killed on or before June 29, 2017, 8 by an intentional act of violence who would qualify for the survivor benefit 9 provided for in Paragraph (B)(2) of this Section shall have any benefit payable 10 on or after June 30, 2017, increased to the amount calculated pursuant to 11 Paragraph (B)(2) of this Section regardless of the date of death of the member.

12 Section 2. The cost of this Act, if any, shall be funded through additional employer 13 contributions in compliance with Article X, Section 29(F) of the Constitution of Louisiana.

14 Section 3. This Act shall become effective on June 30, 2017; if vetoed by the 15 governor and subsequently approved by the legislature, this Act shall become effective on 16 June 30, 2017, or on the day following such approval by the legislature, whichever is later.

Present law provides for the survivor benefit for the spouse and children of any sworn commissioned law enforcement officer of the office of state police, who was first eligible for the State Police Retirement System on or before December 31, 2010, and who was killed in the line of duty or dies from immediate effects of an injury received while in the line of duty. Present law provides that the benefit shall be equal to 75% of the salary received by the officer at the time of death and shall be paid until the death of the surviving spouse notwithstanding any forfeiture provisions in present law (R.S. 11:1321).

Proposed law provides for the survivor benefit for the spouse and children of any sworn commissioned law enforcement officer of the office of state police, who was first eligible for the State Police Retirement System on or before December 31, 2010, and who was killed in the line of duty by an intentional act of violence. Proposed law provides that the benefit shall be equal to 100% of the salary received by the officer at the time of death and shall be paid until the death of the surviving spouse notwithstanding any forfeiture provisions in present law (R.S. 11:1321).

Proposed law provides that any surviving spouse of a member who was first eligible for the State Police Retirement System on or before December 31, 2010, killed on or before June 29, 2017, by an intentional act of violence who would qualify for the survivor benefit provided for in proposed law shall have any survivor benefit payable on or after June 30, 2017, increased to the amount calculated pursuant to proposed law regardless of the date of death of the member.

Present law provides for the survivor benefit for the spouse and children of any sworn commissioned law enforcement officer of the office of state police who was first eligible for the State Police Retirement System on or after January 1, 2011, and who was killed in the line of duty or died from immediate effects of an injury received while in the line of duty. Present law provides that the benefit shall be equal to 80% of the officer's average compensation without regard to the amount of time that the deceased was a member of the plan.

Proposed law provides for the survivor benefit for the spouse and children of any sworn commissioned law enforcement officer of the office of state police who was first eligible for the State Police Retirement System on or after January 1, 2011, and who was killed in the line of duty by an intentional act of violence. Proposed law provides that the benefit shall be equal to 100% of the officer's salary without regard to the amount of time that the deceased was a member of the plan.

Proposed law provides that any surviving spouse of a member who was first eligible for the State Police Retirement System on or after January 1, 2011, killed on or before June 29, 2017, by an intentional act of violence who would qualify for the survivor benefit provided for in proposed law shall have any survivor benefit payable on or after June 30, 2017, increased to the amount calculated pursuant to proposed law regardless of the date of death of the member.

Proposed law makes technical changes to clarify that the survivor benefit shall be paid until the death of the surviving spouse notwithstanding any forfeiture provisions in present law (R.S. 11:1321).

Effective June 30, 2017.
