

2017 Regular Session

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 90

BY SENATOR THOMPSON

COMMENDATIONS. Commends Dr. Linnea Eitmann upon earning a Doctorate of Philosophy in Public Health Management and Policy from Tulane University.

1 A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

2 To commend Dr. Linnea Eitmann upon earning a Doctor of Philosophy in Public Health
3 Management and Policy from Tulane University.

4 WHEREAS, Dr. Linnea Eitmann merits a special measure of commendation upon 5 successfully completing all the academic and administrative requirements set forth by 6 Tulane University's School of Public Health and Tropical Medicine; and

7 WHEREAS, prior to obtaining her doctorate degree, she graduated from the 8 University of William and Mary with a baccalaureate degree in Neuroscience and from 9 Tulane University with a master's degree in International Health and Development; and

10 WHEREAS, she is a native of Gig Harbor, Washington, but has made her home in 11 New Orleans, Louisiana, fully embracing the culture and uniqueness of Louisiana; and

12 WHEREAS, her research and work has focused on improving the public health, 13 medical outcomes, economic security and mobility, and lives of people across the world, 14 specifically Sub-Saharan Africa; and

15 WHEREAS, the focus of her dissertation was family planning access and programing 16 in the Democratic Republic of the Congo, improving women's access to essential medical 17 services in that country, and specific programmatic recommendations to improve family 18 planning services; and

