EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

This bill may decrease overall local governmental expenditures for retirement and payroll taxes related to the compensation of the Marshal of the City of Hammond.

Based on information from the Marshal's office, this bill will decrease the office's portion of retirement expenses and payroll taxes related to the Marshal's compensation as the bill would decrease the Marshal's compensation, including benefits, from $227,842 to maximum of $111,585.

This measure also specifies the allowable uses of existing revenues (having no overall expenditure increase). Currently, the annual amount of civil fees collected that the Marshal is entitled to use for operational purposes of the office is a maximum of $15,500. This bill authorizes the Marshal to use up to $39,586 of fees collected annually to supplement his salary and requires the remainder of the fees to be used for operational expenses of the office.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
