

RÉSUMÉ DIGEST

ACT 102 (HB 328)

2017 Regular Session

Coussan

Prior law allowed for the recovery of attorney fees and costs in an action regarding the acknowledgment of extinction of rights involving immovable property from the person who demanded or refused delivery of the acknowledgment.

New law amends prior law to provide that the losing party of a suit under prior law may be ordered to pay attorney fees and costs incurred by the prevailing party.

Effective August 1, 2017.
