

RÉSUMÉ DIGEST

ACT 114 (HB 10)

2017 Regular Session

Terry Brown

Existing law allows the use of money in the 35th Judicial Expense Fund to pay salaries of court reporters, law clerks, secretaries, and other necessary research personnel, to establish or maintain a law library, and to purchase supplies and equipment, or for any other purpose related to the efficient operation of the court.

New law retains existing law and specifically authorizes the use of money in the 35th Judicial Expense Fund to pay personnel health insurance premiums, certification fees, continuing education fees, and capital outlay expenditures including renovations of existing structures, construction of new structures, and any purpose related to the proper administrative function of the court or office of the judge.

Effective upon signature of governor (June 12, 2017).
