2018 Regular Session

Carpenter

Abstract: Allows a natural person or juridical person to serve as director of the Registrars of Voters Employees' Retirement System (ROVERS).

Present law requires that the board of trustees of ROVERS appoint a director by a majority vote of all board members. Further provides that the director may be a board member. Proposed law provides that the director may be a natural person or a juridical person.

Effective upon signature of governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.
