DIGEST 2018 Regular Session

Gatti

Present law prohibits the cutting, resection, excision, harvesting, removal, sale, receipt, research, commerce, or transport of fetal organs, tissues, and body parts under circumstances defined by present law. Present law provides penalties for violations of present law.

Proposed law retains present law.

SB 73 Original

Proposed law provides that the district attorney of the parish where a violation of present law occurs and the attorney general have concurrent authority to collect evidence, investigate, and institute criminal proceedings for any violation of present law.

Proposed law creates the Fetal Organ Whistleblower Fund in the state treasury. Proposed law further provides that this fund is to be composed of any monies derived from appropriations by the legislature and any gift, grant, devise, donation, or bequest of monies or properties of any nature or description.

Proposed law provides that an award of $1,000 is to be paid out of the Fetal Organ Whistleblower Fund to any person who provides evidence that results in the arrest and indictment of any other person for a violation of present law relative to fetal organs, tissues, and body parts. Proposed law further provides that eligibility for an award pursuant to proposed law is to be determined by the district attorney or the attorney general, as appropriate.

Proposed law provides that all monies deposited in the Fetal Organ Whistleblower Fund are to be used solely to pay awards to persons as provided by proposed law and are to be paid by the state treasurer upon written order signed by the district attorney or the attorney general, as appropriate. However, proposed law provides that monies deposited in the Fetal Organ Whistleblower Fund may be used to pay reasonable costs of administering the fund.

Proposed law provides that the name and other identifying information of any person who is paid an award pursuant to proposed law must remain confidential.

Effective upon signature of the governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.
