HB 210 Original

2018 Regular Session

Jackson

Abstract: Requires a seven-day notice to be provided to peace officers prior to a P.O.S.T. revocation hearing date.

Present law provides the criteria for which a peace officer's P.O.S.T. certification must be revoked. Additionally, it provides other criteria that may result in the revocation of a peace officer's P.O.S.T. certification. All P.O.S.T. hearings are required to be conducted according to the rules promulgated by the council.

Proposed law requires a seven-day notice to be provided to peace officers prior to a revocation hearing.

(Amends R.S. 40:2405(J)(3))
