DIGEST 2018 Regular Session

Mills

Present law provides a schedule for state contributions of the total premium payable to the Office of Group Benefits (OGB) for retirees. Provides for a maximum state contribution of 75%.

Proposed law retains present law and provides that upon retirement, certain judges who were in office on or before December 31, 2001, and continue to be in office as of January 1, 2018, shall be eligible to enroll in the Office of Group Benefits program with a 75% state contribution, regardless of the years of participation in the Office of Group Benefits program before retirement.

Proposed law applies to:

SB 343 Original

- (1) Judges of the first and second parish courts for the Parish of Jefferson.
- (2) Judges of the first and second city courts of New Orleans, Municipal Court of New Orleans and traffic courts of New Orleans.
- (3) Judges of the various city courts now existing or hereafter created in this state.
- (4) Judges of any parish court now existing or hereafter created in this state.

Effective June 30, 2018.
