HB 139 Engrossed

2018 Regular Session

Hoffmann

Abstract: Makes an express exception with respect to telephonic solicitations for blood products during a declared state of emergency.

Present law generally prohibits certain telephonic solicitations during a state of emergency as declared by the governor. Proposed law retains present law.

Present law defines "telephonic solicitation". Proposed law retains present law and makes technical changes.

Proposed law expressly provides an exception to exclude "La.-based community blood centers with nonprofit status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code collecting voluntarily donated blood products for patient transfusion" from the provisions of present law.
