AN ACT

To enact R.S. 15:892.1, relative to correctional facilities; to provide relative to women in correctional facilities; to provide relative to certain healthcare products for incarcerated females; to provide relative to sex-appropriate correctional officers; to provide for definitions; to provide for applicability; and to provide for related matters.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

Section 1. R.S. 15:892.1 is hereby enacted to read as follows:

§892.1. Dignity for incarcerated women

A. As used in this Section, the following words shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Custodian" means a warden, sheriff, deputy sheriff, law enforcement officer, employee of a correctional facility, or any other person having actual custody of an incarcerated person.

(2) "Correctional facility" includes facilities operated by a political subdivision, facilities operated by private entities, and facilities owned or operated by the state or the Louisiana Correctional Facilities Corporation that

1 houses offenders sentenced to the custody of the Department of Public Safety
2 and Corrections.

3 (3) "Correctional officer" means any employee of a correctional facility.

4 B.(1) A custodian shall make healthcare products available to all women
5 incarcerated in a correctional facility at no cost and in a quantity that is
6 appropriate to the needs of the woman without a medical permit. Custodians
7 shall not require that a woman be diagnosed with an illness to access healthcare
8 products. Custodians shall make healthcare products available in housing units
9 and in the medical area of a correctional facility.

10 (2) Healthcare products, as used in this Section, shall include but not be 11 limited to:

12 (a) Feminine hygiene products.

13 (b) Moisturizing soap that is not lye-based.

14 (c) Body lotion.

15 (d) Toothbrushes.

16 (e) Toothpaste.

17 (f) Any other healthcare product the custodian deems appropriate.

18 C.(1) A male correctional officer shall not conduct a pat-down search or 19 body cavity search on an incarcerated woman unless the woman presents an 20 immediate risk of harm to herself or others and a female correctional officer is 21 not available.

22 (2) A male correctional officer shall not enter into an area of the 23 correctional facility in which incarcerated women may be in a state of undress
24 or an area where incarcerated women in a state of undress may be viewed
25 including but not limited to restrooms, shower areas, or medical treatment
26 areas. If a female correctional officer is not available or if a female correctional 27 officer requires assistance, a male correctional officer may enter into an area
28 provided in this Paragraph in the event of a medical emergency or if an 29 incarcerated woman presents an immediate risk of harm to herself or others.

Proposed law provides that a male correctional officer shall announce his presence upon entering a housing unit for incarcerated women.

Proposed law provides that if a male correctional officer conducts a pat-down search or body cavity search or enters a prohibited area in an emergency situation, the custodian or an employee of the correctional facility shall document the incident, including the circumstances necessitating the male officer's actions, no later than three days after the incident.

Effective August 1, 2018.
