EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure. Proposed law provides that the courts may search the state central registry for reports of child abuse or neglect by CASA staff and board members that have contact with children served by CASA. Given that this is the current practice of the courts, there is no anticipated cost as a result of this measure.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
