(d)(i) Any insurer doing business in this state shall accept a current copy of any motor vehicle report procured by a licensed producer or licensed insurance agency on behalf of a client in the quoting and underwriting of automobile insurance. The motor vehicle report shall be deemed current if the report was issued within fifteen days of the requested quote.

(ii) If an insurer chooses to procure a motor vehicle report after having been provided with a current motor vehicle report by a producer or agency, the insurer shall not pass the cost on to the producer, agency, client, or insured.

(iii) If an agency or producer does not supply a current motor vehicle report with a request for a quote, the insurer may procure any necessary motor vehicle
