HB 582 Original

2019 Regular Session

Bacala

Abstract: Establishes a daily boarding fee to be paid to law enforcement officials impounding livestock found roaming at large and removes the daily rate for feeding and caring for each animal.

Present law authorizes state police, sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, constables, and justices of the peace to impound livestock found roaming at large on specific state highways where it is prohibited by the state.

Present law requires the owner or manager of the livestock to pay state police or the officer impounding the livestock a fee of $20 per head of livestock and a daily reimbursement of $2 per animal to cover feeding and care costs.

Proposed law removes the $2 reimbursement and establishes a $10 daily boarding fee for each animal.

Present law authorizes sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, constables, justices of the peace, and other persons to impound livestock roaming at large on a state highway in a ward of a parish where it has been prohibited by a local option election.

Present law requires the owner of the livestock to pay the officer or person impounding the livestock a fee of $10 for each head of livestock taken and a daily reimbursement of $2 per animal to cover feeding and care costs.

Proposed law removes the $2 reimbursement and establishes a $10 daily boarding fee for each animal.
