

RÉSUMÉ DIGEST

ACT 380 (HB 318)

2019 Regular Session

Leger

New law requires the secretary of the Dept. of Public Safety and Corrections (DPS&C) to issue a special prestige license plate to be known as the "Team Gleason Foundation" license plate, provided there is a minimum of 1,000 applicants for such plate.

New law requires that the secretary work in conjunction with the Team Gleason Foundation to select the color and design of the plate. Requires the design to include the words "Team Gleason Foundation".

New law specifies that the license plate be issued, upon application, to any citizen of La. in the same manner as any other motor vehicle license plate.

New law requires the department to collect an annual royalty fee of $25, in addition to the standard motor vehicle license tax, and a $3.50 handling fee for each plate to be retained by the department to offset a portion of administrative costs.

New law requires the department to forward the royalty monies to the Team Gleason Foundation.

New law requires that the secretary promulgate and adopt rules and regulations to implement the provisions provided in new law.

New law requires the secretary of the DPS&C to issue special prestige license plates or hang tags for persons with mobility impairments to be known as the "Team Gleason Foundation" license plate upon application of any person who has a mobility impairment that is permanent or any institution providing transportation for persons with mobility impairments.

New law requires the person issued a "Team Gleason Foundation" special prestige license plate for persons with mobility impairments to surrender the plate to the secretary in accordance with existing law.

New law requires that the "Team Gleason Foundation" special prestige license plate for persons with mobility impairments bear the international symbol of accessibility and mandates each application for the plate to be accompanied by a currently dated medical examiner's statement certifying the applicant has a permanent mobility impairment.

New law requires the secretary to issue a hang tag upon application for a "Team Gleason Foundation" special prestige license plate by any person with mobility impairments.

New law requires that duplicate or renewal hang tags and mobility impaired identification cards be issued and renewed pursuant to existing law.

New law provides that the terms "person with mobility impairment" and "permanent" will retain the definitions ascribed to them in existing law.

New law provides that parking requirements for persons with a "Team Gleason Foundation" special prestige license plate for persons with mobility impairments or displaying a hang tag be as provided for in existing law.

New law subjects any person who willfully or falsely represents himself as having the qualifications to obtain a "Team Gleason Foundation" special prestige license plate for persons with mobility impairments to penalties in existing law.

New law requires that the provisions of existing law relating to the issuance, revocation, and use of special prestige license plates, hang tags, mobility impairment drivers' licenses, and mobility impairment identification cards be administered by the secretary of the DPS&C.

New law specifies that the "Team Gleason Foundation" special prestige license plate will take effect and become operative if and when the new law requirements providing for the creation of the "Team Gleason Foundation" special prestige are met.

New law requires the office of motor vehicles to create the special prestige plate provided for in new law when the applicable statutory provisions are met and its system is updated to accommodate new plates.

Effective Aug. 1, 2019.
