SB 277 Original	DIGEST 2020 Regular Session	Ward

Proposed law provides that the governing authority of any parish with a population between 22,500 and 23,000 persons based upon the latest federal decennial census, and governed by a home rule charter may provide, by ordinance, for the governance of fire protection districts created by the parish. Any such ordinance may provide for the creation of one or more supervising boards to govern such districts. Any ordinance that creates a supervising board shall provide for the appointment and compensation of board members.

Effective upon signature of the governor or lapse of time for gubernatorial action.
