Abstract: Provides relative to the reporting requirements of persons released on probation or parole and authorizes the use of certain technology to comply with reporting requirements.

Present law (R.S. 15:574.4.2) provides that a person who is released on parole may be required to meet with or report to the parolee's probation and parole officer when ordered to do so by the officer.

Present law (C.Cr.P. Art. 895) requires a defendant on probation to report to the defendant's probation officer as directed.

Proposed law retains present law and provides that a probation and parole officer who supervises a person released on probation or parole shall schedule meetings, which are required as a condition of the person's release, at such times and locations that take into consideration and accommodate the work schedule of a person who is employed by another person or entity.

Proposed law further provides that to comply with the provisions of proposed law, in lieu of requiring the defendant to appear in-person for the required reporting or meetings, the
